election law directory answers many questions you may have about local elections, municipal elections, state elections and federal elections. In addition to being an expert on municipal elections, I am a longtime resident of Washtenaw County and a candidate for Washtenaw County Commissioner in the November election. I have worked in government for over 30 years on a variety of issues (minimum wage, clean energy, voting rights, affordable housing and much more). I am the founder of Common Sense Michigan, a grassroots political advocacy group that helps Michiganders engage in politics in a way that is coherent, rational, and free of spin, propaganda, and personal insults. I founded Common Sense Michigan after spending eight years as the Director of Voter Protection for the League of Women Voters of Michigan and the National Voter Fund. Social Media Additional Election Law ResourcesQ: Linq to Sql - inserting list of values I'm inserting a list of Integers into a Linq-to-Sql table. The integers are checked to see if they are in the DB already, and if not, they get added to the table. The problem is, if the database is updated, then if the list of Integers contains duplicate values, they get overwritten - thus breaking the data
