Google Play ★ Google Leaderboard - Google Play March 14, 2020 ★ Gabriel Hernandez (Cupertino, CA, US) 2/5 "The game is quite enjoyable, it's extremely well made and the story-line is terrific. However the game can be quite confusing at first, and even after you've completed a few simple quests you can get pretty lost in the game. It's not easy to follow but if you want an intense action RPG with a deep story and some wicked battles then this is the game for you, but be warned you will have to endure some awesome but complicated gameplay if you want to be a success in this game." After being selected for a mentorship role, Visceral Games founder and Creative Director Ken Levine announced the formation of the studio's first official development team at GameSpot Live today. The new team is led by the studio's Game Director and Founder, Darrell Gallagher, a 22-year industry veteran whose first games such as Dread Empire: Fall of the Dragons and Nosgoth were funded independently and worked on throughout his spare time. "As Ken has been quoted in the past, we're 'a small team with a big idea,'" Gallagher stated. "We've got a clear idea of what we want to do, and we're very excited about how Visceral Games will achieve that goal."

Interestingly, one of Gallagher's most notable recent accomplishments is his appearance in a Visceral Games forum for Mass Effect 2, an online community dedicated to answering Creative Director's questions. The forum is live at http://www.visceralgames.com/forums, and has been for quite some time now. <
