So it's been about two weeks since all the hype came back. I had mentioned that our friends from USA would be coming over and they have. This time, they came just a few weeks later than usual, they talked a lot. It's hard to explain in English, but it was a very long conversation. Anyway, I'm going to be doing something special with them. Simply put, they came and checked out the game. They will be taking a stab at the comments system and giving their thoughts on it. I will of course give credit to them for the article they will write but ultimately it will be their words. So the rules, they will give us anything they want. As long as it's about us, we can still have fun with them. So, they can ask anything about the game, anything about their feedback or what they would like to see. But of course, the only real rule is that it's all about us. I have a feeling that will be happening in the next day or two, I haven't decided yet. Sorry that they didn't have time to write it themselves, but we will of course give credit to them. So enjoy. They were very pleased with what they have seen here so far and what we will release in the future. They have been playing the demo that I gave to them and have left their feedback on the forum. There is a lot of stuff to talk about and I will get to it later. The Demo: Unfortunately, I forgot to ask them for anything. We still have a very good and very big list, but I can't promise to everything in the list. But if we get a chance, I will of course give them. The Time: It was like 3 weeks that they have been in this city. I will have to let the guys from the US decide for sure, but they seemed to have a good amount of time. They were in here

The gunship, RayForce! Its appearance is familiar and makes it a favorite among fans. The 30mm guns mounted in the front and rear are great firepower, but its weapon also boasts a high explosive capacity. A massive main gun and side arms make it a dangerous attacker. The RayForce can charge, support, and even follow your allies. Its appearance brings a sense of nostalgia to the battlefield and offers a wide range of new gameplay.

Characteristics
Weapons System: the RayForce has a 45° spin rate and 300° yaw to make for an excellent weapons system. Despite having a low thrust, the RayForce is equipped with powerful armaments that make it a good ship for attacks.

High Thrust Setting is 4:80 mm High Thrust Gun: high thrust system for main guns
5:40 mm high thrust for arms
High Thrust Gun: a total of five arms can be mounted on the RayForce's hull. The high thrust system can be set for high-grade armaments, such as explosive, to deal heavy damage. The weapons can be switched at any time.

Targeting: the RayForce boasts high-quality target tracking. It can lock onto specific targets using its Dendy Meduza, allowing it to attack enemy ships. There are six types of attack options (1, 3, 4, 5, 7, 8) of which the BGM mode is the only one that will not be displayed. An accurate lock-on is possible with multiple firing options, including the manual lock-on, laser target acquisition, and automatic lock-on for up to 20 turrets.

Special Ship Parts
There are three ship parts that have the same function, but differ in their effects. The MAIN GUN is the ship part that does the most damage. While not requiring a trigger to fire, its main function is to deal heavy damage, such as HE blasts and shield damage. The MAIN GUN can fire up to 20 shots in a burst. The SPEAKER offers a large sound field. The function of the GYRO is a further development of the Gyro system seen in BLOOD STAIN. This feature allows you to easily set an enemy's movement speed, and there are five options, from slow to fast, as well as an automatic setting.

Gyro, the various armaments, and rear cannon can be equipped and used at the same time. There are no performance limitations. The ship's 25mm cannons deal high-grade explosive damage. It has a rapid-fire mechanism and can fire up
