The so-called "Prince of the Church" (the Grand Saint) of the OCA, Fr. Theodosios, the "Earth-Sultan" (Archbishop of New London), the "Lord of the World" (Russian Patriarch of Moscow), "Prince of the Church" (Patriarch of Serbia) Kneon, and the host of powerful hierarchs who were there were all present in the council, supported by 20 of the most influential hierarchs from the Region and ethnic Russian hierarchs from all jurisdictions of the OCA. This council took place in the chapel of the Divine Liturgy at the Monastery of the Holy Trinity in Plovdiv, Bulgaria, where Fr. Nikolaj had said that he wanted to be buried after he had gone to Paradise, "on the altar of the Holy Trinity. PDF file of the record of the Council of the Russian Patriarchate of the OCA (OCA Synod of Bishops), the So-Called "Thrice-Greater Sanhedrin" (10-12 January 2015). The synod had its own agenda, a copy of which was provided. The English translation of the entire record, which is presently being prepared, will not be complete for some time (because of the delicate nature of certain issues). The essence of the synod agenda was the division of the OCA jurisdictions into two major groups: (a) those who were "government" jurisdictions (RCU, OCA, USC, PCUSA) and their agenda included a petition to the Russian Orthodox Church on the pastoral care of the diaspora; (b) those jurisdictions that have not been so-called "government" jurisdictions (SYNAXITUS
