Page 1 should be allowed Page 2 should not be allowed Unfortunately, when i try to scrape data via Selenium on the Page 2, i get a 403 Forbidden error because Selenium uses a User-agent string (that it uses for scraping purposes). Question: Can i disable the User-agent on AWS ELB (so that i dont get Forbidden error)? I don't see a "User agent" option in the ELB settings. And somehow, i am struggling with the setup of the IAM profile here. I'm not sure if i should make the User agent string "Selenium Webdriver" on the IAM profile or just leave it blank. I think that it should be empty on the IAM profile for elastic load balancer to manage and pick the User agent on the instance. A: TLDR: You can only remove the User-agent header if you are running your test agents from an EC2 instance, not from a Load Balancer. Q: Can i disable

Furthermore, another HPV vaccine is now available for girls aged 10-14 and for boys aged 9-15. The vaccine is highly effective, reducing HPV prevalence, anal and cervical cancer incidence, and precancerous lesions.
